

You're Invited

BAMSI and the Massachusetts Behavioral Health Partnership present

COMMUNITY SERVICE AGENCY OF THE BROCKTON AREA

We invite you to join us as the CSA hosts its Informational Breakfast

The Community Service Agency (CSA) of the Brockton Area is one of 32 new statewide programs providing Intensive Care Coordination and Family Support and Training to eligible children and youth with serious emotional disturbance (SED) and their families. Each individual is assigned a Care Coordinator who works with the entire family to design and implement a plan of care that utilizes family strengths and responds to each family's specified needs.

Please join the CSA team for this Informational Breakfast to learn about eligibility, access, and goals of this innovative program of the Children's Behavioral Health Initiative.
