BAMSI HIRES PROVEN FINANCIAL LEADER AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

BAMSI is excited to welcome David Simmons as BAMSI's new Chief Financial Officer. He is a Bentley educated, seasoned, and proven financial leader who is both a CPA and a licensed Nursing Home Administrator.

Mr. Simmons joins BAMSI after over eleven years as CFO of Wayside Youth and Family, a sizeable health and human service agency, where he was an integral part of a leadership team that guided the agency to doubling in size and clients served.

"We are absolutely thrilled to have David join our team," said BAMSI CEO Peter Evers. "BAMSI is such an amazing, large organization, and we look forward to David providing leadership on fiscal discipline while also diversifying revenue."

David joins BAMSI after having worked in public accounting, long term care, acute hospital, specialty hospital, healthcare systems and health and human service organizations.

From 1997 to 2007, Mr. Simmons was Director of Financial Planning and Budgets for Cape Cod Healthcare Inc. In this role he oversaw all capital projects and was responsible for all financial aspects for senior care facilities.

David has extensive experience in administration, management, payroll, systems implementation, regulatory compliance, income tax, budget development, pension administration.

Additionally, he has a strong background in financial planning, accounting analysis and a successful track record of sound service to governance boards and executive leadership.

Founded in 1975, BAMSI is in the business of "bringing people and services together."

BAMSI transforms lives by building the capacity of individuals, families, organizations, and communities to learn, thrive, and achieve their goals.

Our services promote the recovery, resiliency, and self-determination of the people we serve. As a human services leader, we strive to be the provider of choice.

We have more than 120 locations across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with diverse services delivered through a growing workforce of nearly 2,000 employees.
